

LET'S TALK

the big lunch

an eden project THE NATIONAL LOTTERY

One of our favourite games for a Big Lunch is Human Bingo; the idea is simply to get everyone talking, so it's great if people are nervous, shy or don't really know one another.

The aim of the game is to talk to lots of different people to see if you can find someone who matches a statement on your bingo card, it's a quick and fun way to find out more about each other.

WHAT DO YOU NEED?

- Paper or card
- Some quirky questions
- Pens or pencils

MAKE YOUR BINGO CARDS

- On your card or paper add the heading 'Find someone who...' and draw out a table.
- Fill each box with a statement, question, life fact or something you could ask people about.
- Each card doesn't need to have the same questions.
- If you have access to a photocopier – draw out one and copy it as many times as you need.

MAKE YOUR QUESTIONS
AS SILLY OR AS SERIOUS
AS YOU LIKE

HOW TO PLAY

Everyone playing is given a bingo card. As the conversations flow, people will soon start finding out facts about each other.

If you meet someone who matches a statement on your card, write their name in that box on your card.

THE FIRST PERSON WITH A NAME IN EVERY BOX YELLS 'BINGO!'
