COMMUNITY CHEER!

Gatherings, global events and local traditions that bring people together – test your knowledge on community celebrations from around the world!

- 1 Each year in March, everyone around the world is invited to give 60 minutes to help the planet. What is this called?
- 2 How many days does the Chinese New Year Festival traditionally last?
- 3 What year marked the beginning of The Big Lunch and bringing people together on the first weekend in June?
- 4 In the UK, Black History Month is celebrated in which month?
- 5 Which vibrant festival, celebrated with the throwing of coloured powders, is known as 'the festival of colours'?
- 6 St Patrick's Day and the Eden Project's birthday is on which date?
- 7 What colour do they wear in the Netherlands to celebrate Kings' Day?

Did you know? Over 10 million people took part in The Big Lunch last year and it is the UK's largest annual get-together for communities!

LET THE GAMES BEGIN!

Ready to play? Who's got the competitive edge when it comes to favourite childhood games and playful pastimes?

- 1 What item is traditionally thrown onto numbered squares in the game of hopscotch?
- 2 In pick-up sticks, what happens if you move a stick while trying to pick one up?
- 3 What do people need to try and 'bite' from a water-filled bucket in an autumnal party game?
- 4 When the wolf says 'dinner time' in what's the time, Mr. Wolf?, what do players do?
- 5 What does the person who is 'it' need to do to catch someone in the game of tag?
- 6 In marbles, what is the name of the larger marble sometimes used to hit smaller ones?
- 7 What does the seeker say before looking for hidden players in hide and seek?

Did you know? The current world record for the largest game of hide and seek had 1,437 players! Some organisers in the UK have attempted to break this a few times - could your community be the one to do it?
